Dear Carmen Vigil:

Your enthusiasm is infectious. So was Edith's and I am delighted at the idea of a show at the Cinematheque. The 10th is ok. SF is, after all, where it all started and my feelings are sentimental if not nostalgic. There is, however, one small problem. Neither you nor Edith have mentioned that vulgar thing, money. I appreciate the honor bestowed by such an occasion but I am also concerned with honoraria, not to mention fees. How do you take care of that seamy side of such occasions? In short, what do you provide in addition to a showing? Also, fill me in on how long you want a program to be etc.?

Yrs Likewise,

Sidney Peterson
